London, W.C.1.

Cheques should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

Dr. Williams's Trust

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to preachers, ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students of the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, and exhibitions for boys and girls in County Schools, Wrexham. They contribute to the maintenance of Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO POOR MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £50, not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to assist in education of children. It has been the practice for many years to restrict these grants to ministers of Baptist or Congregational Churches. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers, but are not restricted to members of Baptist or Congregational Churches. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of March of each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following June. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University up to the value of £70 per annum for 3 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than April 30th in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £85 per annum for 2 years, tenable at any approved Theological College or University. Applications should be made before the 1st of June in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, who will supply further information as required.

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Theology, Ecclesiastical History, the History of Religion and kindred subjects, it will be found useful for the study of Philosophy, History, Sociology, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply Elementary Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post, to the Librarian.

There is no subscription, but as only a limited sum of money is available each year for the purchase of books, gifts of money or offers of books are gratefully received. A form of bequest appears below.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed on the last Thursday in January, March, June and October.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. If cheques are sent they should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

The LIBRARIAN, Dr. Williams's Library,
14, Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Charity known as Dr. Daniel Williams's Charity the sum of £.... free from all duty and I declare that receipt of the Secretary for the time being of the said Charity shall be a valid and effectual discharge and receipt for the same. Without in any way limiting the discretion of the Trustees of the Charity or imposing any trust I express the wish that this bequest should be utilised for Library purposes.

Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—We regret to report the death of the Rev. Henry Gow, D.D., April of this year. At the last Quarterly Meeting of the Trustees on the 30th the following resolution was passed:—

“The Trustees, at this their first General Meeting since the death of the Rev. Henry Gow, desire to express their deep regret at the loss the Trust has sustained thereby; they would record their appreciation of his valuable services, and how in numerous ways he won the admiration and affection of all his colleagues. He was appointed a Trustee of Dr. Williams's Trust in 1906, and for 32 years maintained his interest in its varied activities; his interest had indeed increased with the increased leisure of later years, and, at the time of his death, he was a member of all the Committees of the Trust, including the Special Committee on Library Reconstruction. Until a year ago he served as Chairman of the Library Committee for the customary period of two years, and in this department his knowledge of books and of the special needs of the Library was of exceptional value to the Trustees. In recording their loss of a devoted Trustee and colleague the Trustees desire also to convey their deepest sympathy with the members of his family.”

EXHIBITION.—Of the numerous books that have been presented to the Library during the past half-year perhaps the most interesting is a copy of the second edition of Newton's Principia, a gift from the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. The Library is now the fortunate possessor of the io princeps (London, 1687), the editio secunda (Cambridge, 1713), the so-called editio ultima (Amsterdam, 1714), and the modern reprint (Glasgow, 1911) of Newton's last definitive edition, the editio tertia aucta and emendata (London, 1726).

When to these are added copies of the monumental edition of the Principia, perpetuis commentariis illustrata, by Le Seur and Jacquier, in four quarto volumes (Geneva, 1739-42), and of the original edition of Motte's translation (London, 1729) it will be agreed that the Library possesses a collection of which even a scientific library would have no need to feel ashamed, and which may come as something of a surprise to many who may not have realised the catholicity at least of the older sections of the Library.

As would be expected the Library also contains copies of those non-scientific works of Sir Isaac Newton's which come within the narrower scope of the Library, The Chronology of Ancient Kingdoms amended (London, 1728), Observations upon the Prophecies of Daniel, and the Apocalypse (London, 1733).

The gift from Carmarthen College is being made the occasion for a small Newton exhibition.

Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—Mr. William Minnis has been appointed a Trustee in the place of the late Rev. Henry Gow.

SCHOLARSHIPS.—At the Divinity Scholarships examination in September a Scholarship of £85 per annum for two years was awarded to A. H. Arkby, M.A., of the Baptist Theological College of Scotland, Glasgow, and Exhibitions of £50 each for one year were awarded to G. Richards, B.D., of Richmond College, Surrey, and H. G. Willis, B.A., of New College, London.

CRABB ROBINSON.—Once more our thanks are due to Professor Edith Morley for the presentation copy, recorded on page 142, of her recently published work: Henry Crabb Robinson on books and their writers (3 vols, J. M. Dent & Sons). Miss Morley is to be congratulated on thus crowning her long labours on the Crabb Robinson Papers, of which the Trustees are the proud custodians. In addition to the collecting together of all the literary references both diaries and reminiscences, not the least valuable section of the work is the appendix in the third volume, which indexes the whole of the correspondence, whether published or unpublished. This will form a quite invaluable tool for all future workers on the Crabb Robinson Papers.

Almost simultaneously with this gift the Trustees have had the opportunity to purchase for the Library, and add to the Crabb Robinson collection, a copy of the printed memorandum prepared by H. C. R. and distributed by him amongst Members of Parliament on the eve of the final debate on the Dissenters Chapels Bill, with a covering letter from H. C. R. to Dr. J. W. Donaldson describing the circumstances under which it was printed and circulated.

SIR ISAAC NEWTON.—The Trustees have been fortunate in purchasing a copy of Sir Isaac Newton's Four Letters to Doctor Bentley: containing some arguments in proof of a Deity (1756). This fills an important gap in the Library's collection of early editions of Newton's theological works, to which reference was made in the last number of the Bulletin, and is a welcome addition to the Newton exhibition now on view in the Reading Room.
